Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors and Securityholders Endesa Capital Finance, L.L.C.:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Endesa Capital Finance, L.L.C. (the Company) (an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Endesa, S.A.) as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the related statements of income, securityholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Endesa Capital Finance, L.L.C. as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

As described in note 7 to the financial statements, the Company conducts significant transactions with related parties.

(1) Organization

Endesa Capital Finance, L.L.C. (the Company) was formed under the laws of the State of Delaware on February 21, 2003. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of International Endesa B.V. (the Parent), which, in turn, is a wholly owned subsidiary of Endesa, S.A. (Endesa). Endesa is a Spanish corporation that is involved in the generation, transmission, marketing, and distribution of electricity in Europe and Latin America. The Company was established for the purpose of issuing preferred capital securities and common capital securities and to use substantially all of the proceeds thereof to enter into loan agreements with the Parent or other non-U.S. affiliates of Endesa.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and related notes. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates. The Company's functional currency and reporting currency is the Euro.

(b) Revenue Recognition

Interest income is recognized as earned, based upon the principal amount outstanding on loans on an accrual basis. Loan fees are recognized into income using a method which approximates the effective interest method over the life of the related loan.

(c) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Presented below is a brief summary of the significant management estimates relating to the fair value of financial instruments:

Cash – The recorded amounts of cash approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

Short-Term Loan Receivable from Parent – The recorded amount of the loan approximates fair value due to the short-term nature of the loan and the periodic repricing of the loan.

Loan to the Parent – The recorded amount of the loan approximates fair value due to the periodic repricing of the loan's interest rate.

Other Current Liabilities – The recorded amount of other current liabilities approximates fair value due to their short-term nature.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2010 and 2009

(In Euros)

(d) Federal and State Income Taxes

The Company is a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. As such, the income tax effects of the results of operations of the Company pass through directly to the owners. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not include any effects for income taxes. Management evaluates the Company's tax positions taken to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely than-not" of being sustained by the Company upon challenge by the applicable tax authorities. For the year ended December 31, 2010, management has concluded there are no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition or disclosure.

(3) Loan to the Parent

On March 28, 2003, the Company made a loan of  $\notin 1.5$  billion to the Parent in exchange for a note. The note, which matures on March 28, 2013, bears interest at a rate equal to the three-month European InterBank Offering Rate (Euribor) plus a margin (0.50%), provided, however, that the three-month effective Euribor shall in no event be less than 4.00% or more than 7.00%. In January 2009, the note was amended to a margin of 0.30%. Interest is due and payable quarterly in arrears on March 28, June 28, September 28, and December 28, commencing June 28, 2003. The effective interest rate of the loan was 4.30% and 4.30% as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively. In connection with this loan, the Company deducted an up-front loan fee of  $\notin 112,200,000$  from the loan amount to be disbursed to the Parent. The Company recognized loan fee income of  $\notin 11,220,000$  and  $\notin 11,220,000$  representing the accretion of the up-front loan fee for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively. The loan to the Parent is presented net of unearned up-front loan fees of  $\notin 25,151,500$  and  $\notin 36,371,500$  as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

On March 26, 2003, the Company extended a  $\in 10$  million short-term credit facility (the Credit Facility) to the Parent. The original maturity date of the Credit Facility was March 26, 2004 and has been automatically extended on a monthly basis until March 24, 2009 when the Company extended a new  $\in 20$  million short-term credit facility (2009 Credit Facility) to the Parent that modified and superseded the March 26, 2003 Credit Facility. The 2009 Credit Facility matured on March 24, 2010. In accordance with the terms of the 2009 Credit Facility, upon its maturity, the short-term credit line was automatically extended for the next annual period (2010 Credit Facility) under the same terms as described in the 2009 Credit Facility. The 2009 and 2010 Credit Facility bear interest equal to the average of the three-month and six-month Euribor plus a margin (0.100%). The effective interest rate of the credit facility was 1.004% and 1.295% at December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

At December 31, 2010 and 2009, the Company had a loan receivable of  $\notin 12,793,918$  and  $\notin 11,245,609$ , respectively, from the Parent pursuant to the 2010 Credit Facility and the 2009 Credit Facility, respectively.

(4) Common Capital Securities

The Company has issued 10 common capital securities to the Parent. Common capital securities are allocated 100% of the net losses of the Company (in the event such should occur) and all gains and losses resulting from the disposition of assets from the Company. The net profits of the Company are allocated to the preferred capital securities until the amount so allocated equals the amount of preferred capital securities dividends declared for the year. Any net profits in excess of the amount allocated to the preferred capital securities are allocated to the common capital securities.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2010 and 2009

(In Euros)

(5) Preferred Capital Securities

The Company is authorized to issue and sell preferred capital securities having an aggregate initial liquidation preference of  $\in 2$  billion. This amount may be amended or restated by resolution of the Board of Directors. Endesa is the guarantor of these securities. Holders of preferred capital securities are entitled to receive, when, as, and if declared by the Board of Directors, out of the Company's net profits, cash dividends that will be paid at such rates as will be determined by the Board of Directors prior to the first issuance of these securities. Dividends on the preferred capital securities are noncumulative.

On March 28, 2003, the Company completed the issuance of 60,000,000 preferred capital securities and received proceeds of €1.5 billion from the issuance. Preferred capital securityholders are entitled to receive dividends at a rate equal to the three-month effective Euribor, provided, however, that the three-month effective Euribor shall in no event be less than 4.00% or more than 7.00%. Dividends are payable quarterly in arrears on March 28, June 28, September 28, and December 28 of each year. The preferred capital securities cannot be redeemed by the Company prior to March 28, 2013, with the exception of certain tax-related events, as defined in the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of Endesa Capital Finance, L.L.C. (the Agreement). In the event the preferred capital securities are not redeemed on March 28, 2013, preferred capital securityholders are entitled to receive dividends at a rate equal to the three-month Euribor plus an effective annual rate of 3.75%. All costs related to this transaction were incurred by the Company and have been charged against the proceeds from issuing the securities.

Preferred capital securities possess no voting rights. However, in the event that the Company fails to pay dividends in full on the preferred capital securities (and the guarantor fails to make a corresponding payment under the guarantee) for five consecutive dividend periods, the holders of the preferred capital securities have the right to alter the composition of the Board of Directors as prescribed in the Agreement.

Preferred capital securities may not be sold or otherwise transferred to a person in the United States of America except pursuant to sales or other transfers that satisfy the requirements of Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act) or that are otherwise exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the Company, the holders of the preferred capital securities will be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to securityholders an amount equal to the liquidation preference per preferred capital security, plus accrued and unpaid dividends thereon for the then-current dividend period, if any, to the date of liquidation. These amounts are guaranteed by Endesa pursuant to the "Acuerdo de Contragarantia" (the Guarantee Agreement). This distribution will occur before any distribution of assets is made to holders of common capital securities or any other class of securities ranking junior to the preferred capital securities.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2010 and 2009

(In Euros)

The Company may not, without the prior approval of the preferred capital securityholders owning not less than 66% of the aggregate liquidation preference of all preferred capital securities then outstanding, merge or consolidate into another entity unless such successor entity assumes all of the obligations of the Company under the preferred capital securities or replaces the preferred capital securities with other securities that have at least the same participation in the profits or assets of the successor entity as the preferred capital securities have in the Company.

(6) Liquidity Fee

In February 2003, the Company entered into a "Contrato de Liquidez" (the Liquidity Fee Agreement) with the underwriters, an unrelated party, of its preferred capital securities offering. Pursuant to the Liquidity Fee Agreement, the Company is committed to pay an annual liquidity fee of 0.2% of the outstanding principal amount of the preferred capital securities. The Company has recorded a liquidity fee expense of  $\pounds$ 2,999,999 and  $\pounds$ 2,999,999 for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

(7) Related-Party Transactions (Amounts Shown in U.S. Dollars)

Pursuant to the Agreement described in note 5, the Parent is responsible for paying substantially all expenses of the Company to the extent such expenses are not paid by the Company. The expenses covered by the Agreement include administrative and organizational costs, as well as any costs resulting from any litigation against the Company.

As discussed in note 3, the Company's loans to the Parent are related-party transactions.

As discussed in note 5, Endesa is the guarantor of the preferred capital securities.

Puglisi & Associates, under terms of a Vendor Agreement dated February 25, 2003, provides accounting and related administrative functions for the Company. The related vendor fee amounts to $28,500 per year. Under the terms of a Lease Agreement dated February 25, 2003, Puglisi & Associates also provides office space to the Company. The office lease amounts to $1,500 per year. Gregory F. Lavelle, who is a director of the Company, also works for Puglisi & Associates. The related director fee amounts to $6,000 per year.

(8) Subsequent Events

Management of the Company has evaluated the need for adjustments and/or disclosures resulting from subsequent events through February 4, 2011, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Based on this evaluation, no subsequent events requiring additional adjustments and/or disclosures have been identified.
