

Helena Viñes Fiestas
Board Member

Studies and qualifications

- Degree in Economics from the University of Barcelona
- Post graduate diploma in Latin American Economics from the Centre for International Studies
- Master's Degree from the London School of Economics and Political Science (2001-2002)

Professional experience

May 2021-present	Board Member of the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) Chair of the EU Platform on Sustainable Finance (since February 2023) Member of the United Nations Secretary-General's High-Level Group of Experts (since April 2022) Member of the Climate and Environment Advisory Board of the European Investment Bank (EIB) (since 2021)
Oct 2020- Oct 2022	Rapporteur of one of the work groups of the European Platform on Sustainable Finance
May2011-May2021	Senior Advisor of the BNP Paribas Group on sustainable finance, while being the Head of the Stewardship activities (dialogue with companies and supervisor of the strategy and voting at general meetings) and public policies for the group's asset manager where she also was Deputy Director of Sustainability. Board member of the Institutional Investors Group on Climate Change, commissioner of the Foment Chair's Office and member of the Climate and Sustainable Finance Commission of the French financial markets' supervisor AMF. Member of the Technical Board of the Transition Pathway Initiative and of the Management Committee on the Climate Lobbying initiative in the United Kingdom.
June2008-Oct2020	Member of the European Commission's Technical Expert Group on Sustainable Finance.
2005 – 2011	Policy advisor in the Policy and Advocacy Department of Oxfam GB. Formerly, she was an ESG analyst at the Corporate Responsibility Core Rating Agency.

Publications, conferences and other activities

- She has written various chapters of books specialised on the subject, a book and numerous feature articles. Her name is regularly mentioned in the media, particularly in media specialised in finance and sustainable development.