

RESUMPTION OF THE SPANISH NATIONAL SECURITIES MARKET COMMISSION'S SELECTION PROCESSES

28 July 2020

Due to the situation caused by the evolution of COVID-19, which led to the adoption of extraordinary containment measures by the health authorities, the CNMV decided on 13 March to temporarily postpone the selection processes underway.

As this crisis has been overcome, we hereby announce the resumption of the following selection processes:

- Ref. 04/18 - Clerks
- Ref. 05/18 - Experts in Risk Measurement Models and Quantitative Techniques of IFs and CCPs
- Ref. 06/18 - Experts for Various Directorates and Departments
- Ref. 02/19 - Information Systems Department Experts
- Ref. 03/19 - Human Resources Experts

The relevant exams, according to the stage of each selection process, are scheduled for the second half of September.

The provisional shortlist and those not shortlisted, together with the relevant date, place and time scheduled for the first competitive exam, shall be published in the second half of September.

However, due to the health crisis scenario arising from COVID 19, the dates may be amended.

Any updates to this information shall be made through the statements which shall be made public in the General Registry of the Spanish National Securities Market Commission and on its website: <http://www.cnmv.es/portal/quees/Ofertas/empleo.aspx>
