11 July 2025

To: Shareholders of the Share Class listed in Appendix 1 of this notice (the “Share Class”)

Re: Cancellation of the Sterling (“GBP”) trading line of Share Class from the London Stock Exchange (“LSE”)

Dear Shareholder,

The Directors of iShares plc (the “Company”) wish to advise you that, following a review by BlackRock Advisors (UK) Limited, the Investment Manager of the Share Class, the GBP trading line (the “Affected Trading Line”) of the Share Class will be removed from trading on the LSE on 28 October 2025 (the “Cancellation Effective Date”).

It is important to note that the Share Class will not be closing.

Terms not defined in this notice have the same meaning given to them in the Company’s prospectus (available at www.ishares.com) (the “Prospectus”).

1. Background and decision

The Investment Manager believes that the cancellation of the trading line is in the best interests of shareholders as a whole. By rationalising the number of trading lines used by the Share Class, the Investment Manager seeks to ensure that the Share Class is only traded on the most utilised trading lines available in the market, thereby avoiding unnecessary duplication across trading venues and enhancing market quality.

From the Cancellation Effective Date, the GBP trading line of the Share Class will be removed from trading on the LSE. The GBP trading lines on other European exchanges and the non-GBP currency trading lines on the LSE will remain unaffected. In this instance, as there are other existing non-GBP currency trading lines on the LSE, removing the GBP trading line from the LSE is not considered to be a delisting of the entire Share Class from the LSE, rather it is merely a “cancellation” of the GBP trading line from the LSE.

2. Action to be taken by you

There are two options available to you with respect to your holdings in the Share Class. We suggest that you discuss these options with your financial advisor, broker, dealer or other intermediary. Each is detailed below:

Option 1: Take no immediate action and transfer your shares after the Cancellation Effective Date

From the date of this notice up to (but excluding) the Cancellation Effective Date, you can continue to sell your shares in the Share Class on the Affected Trading Line.

Following the Cancellation Effective Date, you can continue to hold your shares in the Share Class purchased through the Affected Trading Line, but you will no longer be able to sell those shares through the Affected Trading Line. When you wish to sell your shares, you will need to transfer your shares to a different currency trading line on the LSE or to a different exchange as set out in Appendix 1 to this notice, which may not be in the same currency as the Affected Trading Line.

In addition, from the Cancellation Effective Date you may refer to an alternative trading line for valuation purposes.

Option 2: Transfer your shares in the Share Class to a different exchange prior to the Cancellation Effective Date

You may wish to transfer your shares in the Share Class to a different currency trading line on the LSE or to a different exchange to ensure that, from the Cancellation Effective Date, your holdings continue to reflect current market prices and you can transact easily when you decide to do so in the future. For the avoidance of doubt, moving your shares in the Share Class to a different exchange does not involve any trading.

Shareholders should seek their own professional advice as to the suitability of these options.

3. Tax Consequences

Shareholders should note that the removal of the Affected Trading Lines and related actions as described above should not result in a taxable event. However, the specific tax treatment will depend on your individual circumstances. Should you be in any doubt as to the tax consequences in your jurisdiction you should contact your financial or tax advisor.

4. Further information

If you have any queries, please contact iShares on info@ishares.com or 0845 357 7000, or your usual iShares representative.

Yours faithfully
