2. Insofar as they are compatible with their specific status, the code of conduct established in these internal Regulations for the directors shall apply to the Secretary and the senior managers of the Company and, if they exist, to the Honorary Chairman and the Deputy Secretary of the Board. For purposes of these Regulations senior managers shall be those individuals who perform senior management duties and report directly to the Board or to any of its members, and are members of the Management Committee, and any other persons designated as such by the Board of Directors upon the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer and, in any case, the Director of Internal Auditing.

Article 2. Interpretation

These Regulations shall be interpreted in accordance with the applicable legal regulations and bylaws, and with the principles and recommendations approved or issued by Spanish authorities on the corporate governance of listed companies, taking into account their spirit and purpose. The Board of Directors shall have the power to resolve any disputes related to interpretation that may arise in terms of their enforcement after receiving a report from or consulting with the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee.

Article 3. Amendment

1. These Regulations may only be amended at the instance of the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee or of one third of the number of directors serving on the board, and their proposal shall be accompanied by a supporting statement on the reasons for and scope of the proposed change. The Committee shall consider the suggestions that any Director serving on the Board makes in this regard.
2. Proposed amendments shall be accompanied by a report from the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee, unless the initiative comes from the Committee itself.
3. The text of the proposed change, the supporting statement of those submitting the proposal, and the report of the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee, if applicable, shall be attached to the notice of the Board meeting at which it will be considered.

4. To be effective, the Regulations amendment shall require a resolution approved by the absolute majority of the Board members.

Article 4. Dissemination

1. The directors and senior managers of the Company and the companies of its Group are obliged to know, comply with and enforce these Regulations. For this purpose, the Board Secretary shall provide a copy to each of them when they accept their respective appointments, their contracts take effect or the Regulations are amended, as the case may be. For purposes of these Regulations, companies of the Group shall be defined as those that at any time fall within the scope of Article 42 of the Spanish Commercial Code.
2. Notwithstanding the obligation to comply with the applicable regulations in effect at any time, the Company's Board of Directors shall adopt the appropriate measures so that the Regulations are distributed to the shareholders and investors in general, and, in particular, that the Regulations are notified to the Spanish National Securities Market Commission. Once notification is complete, they shall be registered with the Commercial Registry pursuant to the general regulations.

4. To perform the evaluation, the Board shall have the support of external consultants and any internal resources it deems necessary in each case.
5. Based on the results of the annual evaluation, the Board of Directors shall propose the appropriate actions to remedy the problems identified and promote improvements.

Section III.- COMPOSICION OF THE BOARD

Article 9. Qualitative composition

1. In exercising its powers to submit proposals to the General Meeting of Shareholders and co-opt to fill vacancies, the Board of Directors shall ensure that the Board's composition is such that the external directors represent a large majority of the Board, and that the number of independent directors represent at least half of the total Board members and, in any case, a third. The number of the executive directors shall be the minimum necessary, taking into account the complexity of the corporate Group and the share of the executive directors in the Company's capital.
2. To establish a reasonable balance between the proprietary directors and the independent directors, the Board shall take into account Company shareholder structure, considering the importance of the shareholdings, in absolute and comparative terms, as well as the degree of permanence and strategic connection with the Company of those shareholders.
3. In any case, the Board shall ensure that the percentage of non-executive directors who are proprietary directors does not exceed the percentage of the Company's capital represented by those proprietary directors.
4. For purposes of the provisions of this article, the Company shall adapt the classification of the directors to the definitions and criteria contained in the applicable regulations in effect at any time.
5. The Board of Directors shall explain the nature of each director to the General Shareholders Meeting, which shall make or approve the appointment, which shall be confirmed or, as the case may be, reviewed annually in the Annual Corporate Governance Report after verification by the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee.

6. The provisions of this article are notwithstanding the legally recognized right of proportional representation of the shareholders.
7. Likewise, the Board of Directors shall ensure that the selection procedures for its members promote gender diversity, professional experience, sectoral knowledge, geographical origin and skills, and do not contain implicit biases that may involve discrimination of any kind.

Article 10. Quantitative composition

1. The number of members of the Board of Directors shall be determined by the General Shareholders Meeting within the limits established by the Company Bylaws.
2. Based on a proposal submitted by the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee, the Board shall propose to the General Meeting the number it considers most appropriate in accordance with the changing circumstances of the Company, to ensure that it is duly representative and functions efficiently.

Article 11. Commitment and limits on the activities of the director

1. Directors shall dedicate the time and effort necessary to satisfactorily perform their duties. Therefore, directors shall inform the Board of other activities that may significantly affect their commitment as Company directors.
2. Regarding the number of other boards of which they may be members, the general rule shall be that directors may not be members of so many other boards that it prevents or hinders them from dedicating the proper amount of time to their position as Company director. In this regard, the Company directors shall comply with the following restrictions:
 - (i) Executive directors may hold administrative posts at other companies, provided that they do not perform executive duties at any of them.
 - (ii) Non-executive directors may hold administrative posts at six other companies, provided they do not perform executive duties at any of them. However, they may only hold administrative posts at two other companies if they perform executive functions in one of them. Those who perform executive functions at two or more companies may not be non-executive directors of the Company.
3. For purposes of paragraphs 2(i) and 2(ii) above, (a) only companies whose shares are admitted to trading on stock exchanges or alternative markets, domestic or foreign, and others that require an equal commitment, shall be taken into account; and (b) all the management bodies of companies that belong to the same group shall be treated as a single administrative body, as well as those that partly consist of proprietary directors proposed by any company of the group, although a stake in the capital or degree of control of the company does not allow it to be considered a member of the group.

4. Notwithstanding these restrictions, the Board shall assess the personal and professional circumstances of the director in each case, particularly the case of proprietary directors. As an exception in duly justified cases, the Board of Directors may exempt the director from these restrictions.
5. A breach of the above restrictions shall result in the enforcement of the provisions of section 3 of Article 23 of these Regulations.

3. Since the title is honorary, the Honorary Chairman is not a member of the Board of Directors. However, the Honorary Chairman shall comply with the obligations arising from the duty of loyalty imposed by law on the directors.
4. The title of Honorary Chairman may be revoked by the Board, depending on the circumstances in each case.

Section V.- FUNCTIONING OF THE BOARD

Article 18. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors shall meet as often as its Chairman deems necessary, holding at least one meeting each quarter of the financial year, and will seek to ensure that at least eight meetings are held per year.
2. The schedule of ordinary meetings shall be established by the Board of Directors itself before the start of each financial year, based on a proposal by the Chairman. The schedule may be amended by resolution of the Board of Directors itself, or by decision of the Chairman if necessary, who shall inform the directors of the change as soon as it is known and at least five business days prior to the date on which the meeting is initially scheduled or prior to the new date, if the latter is earlier.

3. Following the same procedure, the meetings of the Board of Directors may be cancelled or suspended, or the date, agenda or venue of the meeting may be changed.
4. Furthermore, the Board of Directors may hold an extraordinary meeting if it is convened by the Chairman, or by one third of the directors, the First Vice-Chairman or the Coordinating Director. In the case of the latter three, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene the meeting within five business days of receiving the request in order to hold the meeting no later than three calendar days after it is convened. This shall be four calendar days if a weekend falls between the date on which the meeting is convened and the date set for holding it.
5. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall have the right to convene the Board's meetings. However, the meetings of the Board of Directors may be convened by the Secretary of the Board of Directors, or whoever performs the latter's duties, with the Chairman's authorization. The meeting shall be convened by any means that permits the receipt of its notification. The meeting may also be convened by directors representing at least one third of the members of the Board, indicating the agenda and holding it at the company's registered address, if the Chairman of the Board of Directors fails to convene it without justification within one month after receiving a request.
6. The scheduled meetings shall be formally convened sufficiently in advance, and not later than three calendar days before the meeting, except in the case of urgent meetings, and shall include the agenda, unless there is a justified reason not to. The meeting shall be convened at least four calendar days in advance if a weekend falls between the date on which the meeting is convened and the date set for holding it.
7. Unless the Board meets or has been exceptionally convened for urgent reasons, the notification of the meeting shall include the information necessary for the directors to properly prepare for and deliberate the items on the agenda, and should be accompanied by proposed resolutions related to the items on the agenda requiring a decision of the Board.
8. Extraordinary and urgent sessions of the Board of Directors may be convened by any means that permit the receipt of notification thereof, and the requirements and formalities set forth in the previous sections shall not apply in these cases, if the circumstances justify this in the opinion of the Chairman.
9. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall decide the agenda for the meeting. The First Vice-Chairman, the Coordinating Director or a third of the directors, may ask the Chairman of the Board of Directors to include items on the agenda and the latter shall be obliged to include them if the request is submitted at least four calendar days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting, or five calendar days if a weekend falls within this period.

If the Chairman, on an exceptional basis for reasons of urgency, wants to submit decisions or resolutions not included in the agenda for approval by the Board of Directors, the prior express consent of the majority of directors attending the meeting in person shall be required, which consent must be recorded in the minutes.

10. Notwithstanding the above, the Board of Directors meeting shall be considered to be validly constituted when all of the directors are present or represented and unanimously agree to the meeting and the agenda items to be deliberated.
11. The Board of Directors may vote in writing without holding a meeting provided that no director objects to it. In this case, the directors may send their votes and the remarks they would wish to have recorded in the minutes by the same means foreseen in convening the meeting to the Secretary of the Board of Directors, who shall act on behalf of the Chairman. The resolutions adopted during this procedure shall be recorded in the minutes, pursuant to the law.
12. At the request of the Chairman or the Coordinating Director, the non-executive directors shall meet at the end of the Board meeting to share concerns and opinions on any matters. The Coordinating Director may also organize these meetings with the independent directors.

2. Directors are obliged to attend meetings, preferably in person. However, if their attendance is impossible, directors shall authorize another director in writing to represent them specifically for each meeting, instructing the representative about the criteria of the represented party. Non-executive directors may only delegate other non-executive directors to represent them. They may not delegate a director to represent them in matters in which that director has a conflict of interest.
3. The Board meeting may be held by video conference or any other similar means that ensures the identity of those attending.
4. The Chairman may invite anyone to the meetings of the Board of Directors who may help to better inform the directors.
5. Unless a supermajority is required by laws, resolutions shall be adopted by a straight majority of the directors present or duly represented, with a tie vote being decided by the Chairman.
6. The Chairman shall organize the debate, encouraging the participation of all directors in the board's deliberations and submitting the matters to a vote when the Chairman considers them to have been sufficiently debated.
7. Each director present or duly represented shall have one vote.

3. Nominations of directors shall always be accompanied by a supporting statement from the Board of Directors. For these purposes, the Board can use the supporting statement already submitted by the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee.
4. All of the proposals and statements for the appointment of directors, both those submitted by the Board and by the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee shall assess the suitability of the proposed candidates for the position of director, with special attention to their expertise, experience and accomplishments, as well as their ability to commit to the duties that correspond to the position. These reports shall be attached to the minutes of the General Meeting or those of the Board itself.

Article 21. Reappointment of Directors

1. Proposals for the reappointment of directors that the Board of Directors decides to submit to the General Meeting shall be subject to a formal process, which requires:
 - (i) In the case of independent directors, a proposal from the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee; and
 - (ii) In the case of other directors, a report from the Nominations, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee.
2. The proposal or report of the Committee shall evaluate the performance and the commitment to the position of the proposed directors during their previous term, and to determine whether the profile of the proposed directors continues to be suitable and their commitment continues.

Article 22. Term of the position

1. Directors shall serve a term of three years, and may be reappointed.

2. Directors selected by co-optation may be confirmed to the post by resolution of the next General Meeting following their selection.

If a vacancy occurs after the General Meeting is convened but before it is held, the Board of Directors may appoint a director until the next General Meeting.

Article 23. Termination of directors

1. Directors shall cease to hold office when the term for which they were appointed expires, or when the General Meeting resolves their termination with the powers conferred on it by law or the Bylaws.
