The AMF warns investors against the activities of Dynamic Wealth Management

The AMF is warning investors to be aware of activities conducted by Dynamic Wealth Management, whose headquarters are located at Schützengasse 4, 8001 Zurich, Switzerland. Its website is at <http://www.dynamicwealthmanagement.com>.

The company approaches French investors through direct phone marketing, offering investment services and financial investments with high rates of return.

The AMF indicates that Dynamic Wealth Management has not been authorised to solicit business or propose investment services in France. The company has already received a warning from the British Financial Services Authority (FSA) and by our Swedish counterpart, the Finansinspektionen.

The AMF therefore advises investors to ignore any soliciting from this company and to restrain from referring them to third parties in any way whatsoever.

In general, before entering into any business dealings, we encourage you to check that any intermediary who solicits your business is, in fact, listed as an established financial institution authorised to conduct business in France.
