The increase in volume is mainly due to the effect of the merger with clickair in July 2009.

Seven new routes

In June, Vueling has started operations in seven new routes: from Barcelona to Amman, Edinburgh, Istanbul, Liubliana and Tel-Aviv; as well as Valencia-Munich and Amsterdam-Ibiza.

On July 5th, the airline successfully started the operation of connecting flights through its main base, Barcelona, which now becomes a hub for Vueling. Thanks to the connections Vueling-to-Vueling, the airline offers 418 connections, or 418 new routes. On top of an improved offer of destinations, Vueling is offering its connecting passengers discounts in shops and other advantages during its stopover in Barcelona.

First results of the integrated company

Vueling will publish second quarter results on July 27th. These results will account for the first time for twelve months effect of merger with clickair.
