VIEW ADDITIONAL RATING DETAILSTRANSACTION SUMMARY

The transactions comprise fully amortising Spanish residential mortgages serviced by Banco de Sabadell, S.A. (BBB+/Stable/F2).

KEY RATING DRIVERS

CE Protection: The rating actions reflect Fitch's view that the notes are sufficiently protected by credit enhancement (CE) to absorb the projected losses commensurate with the ratings. For CAM 8, we expect CE ratios to continue increasing driven by the reserve fund (RF) being at its floor level and the notes' irreversible fully sequential amortisation as the pool factor trigger is now below the 10% limit for any pro-rata amortisation. For CAM 9, although the RF decreased to its floor in October 2025, implying reduction in CE for the most junior notes, we expect CE ratios to increase due to the prevailing sequential amortisation of the notes.

Payment Interruption Risk Cap Removed: In our view, payment interruption risk (PIR) in TDA CAM 9 is mitigated up to the 'AAA' rating case in the event of a servicer disruption by the cash RF that would be sufficient to cover stressed senior fees, net swap payments and senior notes interest due amounts while an alternative servicer arrangement was implemented. Fitch expects the RF to remain stable and sufficiently funded in the medium term, based on its expectations for the transaction's performance. As a result, we have removed the 'AA+sf' cap on the notes' rating, in line with our criteria.

We view PIR in TDA CAM 8 as fully mitigated in a servicer disruption as the RF would offer sufficient liquidity to cover stressed senior fees, net swap payments and senior notes interest while an alternative servicer arrangement was implemented.

Neutral Asset Performance Outlook: The rating actions reflect the transactions' broadly stable asset performance outlook, in line with our neutral asset performance outlook for eurozone RMBS. The transactions have low shares of loans in arrears over 90 days (0.6% for CAM 8 and 0.5% for CAM 9, according to the latest investor reports) and are protected by substantial portfolio seasoning of more than 18 years.

When calibrating the portfolio foreclosure frequency (FF) rates, Fitch has applied a 1.5x transaction adjustment. This accounts for the difference between observed FF performance in the portfolios and the criteria-derived transaction-specific weighted average (WA) FF, resulting in an increase in the transactions' WAFF. Nonetheless, the portfolio credit analysis remains driven by the minimum loss in high rating scenarios, for example, 5% at the 'AAA' rating case.

Excessive Counterparty Exposure: Both transactions' class C notes' ratings remain capped at the transaction account bank's (TAB) deposit rating (Societe Generale S.A. A-/Stable/F1, deposit rating 'A') as the RF is the only source of CE for these tranches. Simulating the sudden loss of the cash RF held at the TAB would result in model-implied downgrades of 10 or more notches for these notes.

RATING SENSITIVITIES

Factors that Could, Individually or Collectively, Lead to Negative Rating Action/

Downgrade

CE ratios unable to fully compensate the credit losses and cash flow stresses associated with the current ratings, all else being equal, will result in downgrades. For example, a 15% increase in the WAFF and 15% decrease in the recovery rates would result in a one-notch downgrade of CAM 9's class C notes.

For the classes C notes, a downgrade of the TAB provider's deposit rating, as the notes are rated at their maximum achievable rating due to excessive counterparty risk exposure.

Factors that Could, Individually or Collectively, Lead to Positive Rating Action/ Upgrade

Notes rated 'AAAsf' are at the highest level on Fitch's scale and cannot be upgraded.

Increases in CE ratios as the transactions deleverage to fully compensate the credit losses and cash flow stresses commensurate with higher ratings may result in upgrades.

For the classes C notes, an upgrade of the TAB provider's deposit rating, as the notes are rated at their maximum achievable rating due to excessive counterparty risk exposure.

USE OF THIRD PARTY DUE DILIGENCE PURSUANT TO SEC RULE 17G -10

Form ABS Due Diligence-15E was not provided to, or reviewed by, Fitch in relation to this rating action.

DATA ADEQUACY

TDA CAM 8, FTA, TDA CAM 9, FTA

Fitch has checked the consistency and plausibility of the information it has received about the performance of the asset pools and the transactions. Fitch has not reviewed the results of any third party assessment of the asset portfolio information or conducted a review of origination files as part of its ongoing monitoring.

Fitch did not undertake a review of the information provided about the underlying asset pools ahead of the transaction's initial closing. The subsequent performance of the transactions over the years is consistent with the agency's expectations given the operating environment and Fitch is therefore satisfied that the asset pool information relied upon for its initial rating analysis was adequately reliable.

Overall, and together with any assumptions referred to above, Fitch's assessment of the information relied upon for the agency's rating analysis according to its applicable rating methodologies indicates that it is adequately reliable.

PUBLIC RATINGS WITH CREDIT LINKAGE TO OTHER RATINGS

TDA CAM 8 and 9 class C notes are capped and linked to the TAB's deposit rating (which is Societe Generale S.A. with deposit rating 'A') as they are exposed to excessive counterparty risk.

ESG CONSIDERATIONS

Fitch has revised TDA CAM 9's ESG Relevance Score to '3' from '5', reflecting the updated PIR analysis that is no longer a constraint on senior ratings.

The highest level of ESG credit relevance is a score of '3', unless otherwise disclosed in this section. A score of '3' means ESG issues are credit-neutral or have only a minimal credit impact on the entity, either due to their nature or the way in which they are being managed by the entity. Fitch's ESG Relevance Scores are not inputs in the rating process; they are an observation on the relevance and materiality of ESG factors in the rating decision. In issuing and maintaining its ratings and in making other reports (including forecast information), Fitch relies on factual information it receives from issuers and underwriters and from other sources Fitch believes to be credible. Fitch conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of Fitch's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of Fitch's ratings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information Fitch relies on in connection with a rating or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to Fitch and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its ratings and its reports, Fitch must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, ratings and forecasts of financial and other information are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, ratings and forecasts can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a rating or forecast was issued or affirmed. Fitch Ratings makes routine, commonly-accepted adjustments to reported financial data in accordance with the relevant criteria and/or industry standards to provide financial metric consistency for entities in the same sector or asset class.

The complete span of best- and worst-case scenario credit ratings for all rating categories ranges from 'AAA' to 'D'. Fitch also provides information on best-case rating upgrade scenarios and worst-case rating downgrade scenarios (defined as the 99th percentile of rating transitions, measured in each direction) for international credit ratings, based on historical performance. A simple average across asset classes presents best-case upgrades of 4 notches and worst-case downgrades of 8 notches at the 99th percentile. For more details on sector-specific best- and worst-case scenario credit ratings, please see Best- and Worst-Case Measures under the Rating Performance page on Fitch's website.
