LOGISTA ANNOUNCES THE ACQUISITION OF SPEEDLINK, DUTCH COMPANY IN THE COURIER EXPRESS SECTOR

- Logista acquires 70% of Speedlink Worldwide Express, specialist in B2B express (time critical) deliveries to and from Belgium and the Netherlands, and settles to acquire the remaining 30% over the next 3 years
- Nacex – part of Logista – expands internationally to the Netherlands, the country with the largest number of distribution centers in Europe
- The alliance reinforces the services already offered by Logista in medical/health distribution, and provides a platform for the development of other Logista businesses in the area

Madrid, February 16th, 2022. - Logista, the leading distributor in Southern Europe, has announced the acquisition of 70% of the Dutch company Speedlink Worldwide Express, a specialist in express (time critical) deliveries to and from Belgium and the Netherlands.

Founded in 1995 by Dennis Scheltema, Speedlink has been the exclusive agent of Nacex - a Logista's company - for the Benelux, since 2006.

The company, based in Hoofddorp, near Schiphol Airport, has around 30 employees and serves growth sectors. Speedlink has developed a unique business model, based on an asset-light structure, and specialised in time critical transport services for healthcare, high-tech, automotive and e-commerce sectors.

This acquisition enables the international expansion of Nacex's services to Benelux, while strengthening Logista's position in medical/healthcare distribution, and expanding its portfolio of services outside the Iberian Peninsula.

Speedlink offers its premium express delivery services mainly in Spain, Portugal, Germany, and the UK.

The reached agreement contemplates the acquisition of the remaining 30% of the business in the next three years. Moreover, it also provides for Mr. Scheltema's continuity at the head of the company, leading the development of growth opportunities, with Nacex's support. The transaction will be paid with cash, with a maximum amount of 18.5 million euros for the acquisition of the 70% of the company, based on the achieved objectives.

Íñigo Meirás, CEO of Logista stated: "I am pleased to announce the acquisition of Speedlink, a long-standing partner of Nacex with whom we share a similar culture based on the service we provide to our customers. With this transaction, we are expanding our service portfolio, while also laying the foundations for Nacex's international development."
