OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION

Solaria Energía y Medio Ambiente, S.A. ("Solaria") announces that it has signed a strategic agreement with the Government of Uruguay to develop a data center technology campus of up to 500 MW, under the Free Trade Zone regime, together with 350 MW of solar photovoltaic generation capacity.

Solaria will develop and operate the Free Trade Zone, including land development, infrastructure and services for data center operators, as well as the campus connection to Uruguay's 500 kV transmission grid.

The agreement also provides for a Power Purchase Agreement (PPA) of up to 40 years with UTE, Uruguay's state-owned electricity utility, covering the electricity generated by the solar photovoltaic plants.

The project will be developed in two phases: an initial 200 MW of data center capacity and 350 MW of solar photovoltaic capacity, followed by an additional 300 MW of data center capacity.
