

TO THE SPANISH NATIONAL SECURITIES MARKET COMMISSION

In accordance with Article 226 of Law 6/2023, of 17 March, on Securities Markets and Investment Services, and the implementing regulations, Obrascón Huarte Laín, S.A. (“OHLA” or the “Company”) hereby discloses the following:

INSIDE INFORMATION

Judlau Contracting, Inc., OHLA’s US subsidiary, has been notified by the New York Court of Appeals has declined to hear the request to appeal a judgment issued by the Supreme Court of the State of New York ordering the subsidiary to pay USD 43,924,202.36, plus interest. The judgment will be paid by the US subsidiary from its own available financial resources.

Following this notification, no further avenues of appeal are available. The Company will continue to pursue the proceedings it has brought against the external counsel who handled the defense of the case during its earlier stages for mishandling the litigation from the outset. The external counsel maintains professional liability insurance coverage in excess of the judgment amount.

The dispute concerns labor law related matters affecting a specific category of construction workers in New York City, an issue that has also been the subject of similar claims against other companies in the city’s construction industry.

The Company has regularly disclosed the existence of this litigation in its annual financial statements and periodic financial reports, as well as the claim brought against the external counsel. The latter litigation is expected to be resolved during the current financial year.

Madrid, 24 June 2026