

THE CNMV ORGANISES THE SEVENTH EDITION OF THE ANTONIO MORENO ESPEJO JOURNALISM AWARD

20 November 2023

- The award is a tribute to the professional career of Antonio Moreno Espejo, the former Director of the CNMV's Authorisation and Registration Department for 15 years.

The Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) announces the Antonio Moreno Espejo Journalisms Award for 2023.

The award recognises journalistic works that stand out due to their promotion of the integrity and transparency of the securities market and the protection of investor interests, values which guide CNMV's activity and that said institution must promote.

Antonio Moreno Espejo was a member of the CNMV's staff since its inception in the late eighties, until his untimely passing in January 2017. He was an economist by trade and the Director of the CNMV's Authorisation and Registration Department for 15 years.

The prize consists of 15,000 euros and is awarded in a single category.

The prize may be awarded to any article, report or journalistic creation published in the Spanish media or in any format or channel between 1 January and 31 December of this year, in any of Spain's official languages. The deadline to submit applications is 31 December 2023.

Those professionals who wish to classify for the award may submit their work to comunicacion@cnmv.es.

The criteria to grant the award will be the rigour and technical quality of the work, the extent to which it promotes transparency in the securities markets and the protection of investor interests, as well as the contribution of the work to financial education.

The jury will be made up of three to five members and will be chaired by a CNMV Commissioner. The remaining members will be persons linked to institutions or associations related to the financial sector, including consumer or investor associations, or renowned experts.

The works will be chosen by the CNMV Communications Department, on its own initiative or at the proposal of any person or entity, and the winner selection will be made public in the first quarter of 2024.

The winner of the last edition was Carles Tamayo for his article titled "8 HORAS con 7000 CRYPTO BROS" (Spending 8 hours with 7000 Crypto Bros), published on the @TamayoStuff YouTube channel.

Numerous institutions related to the financial sector collaborate with the CNMV to promote the Antonio Moreno Award.

More information on the Antonio Moreno Award is available on our website.