7. In general, any document or report that is presented to the General Meeting

Shareholders may request from the Board of Directors, in writing up to the fifth day prior to the day scheduled for the Meeting, or orally during the meeting, in the case of physical or telematic participation in the meeting, the information or clarifications or questions they deem necessary regarding the matters included in the Agenda of the Meeting. the information accessible to the public that the Company has provided to the National Securities Market Commission since the last General Meeting (25/3/2025) and the auditor's report.

In requests for information, the applicant must prove their shareholder status and identity, by means of a photocopy of their National Identity Document or Passport and, in the case of a legal entity, a document of sufficient accreditation of their representation.

In the event of telematic attendance, the right to information will be exercised in accordance with the procedure described in the corresponding section of this call.

Complement to the call and new proposals for agreement.

In accordance with Article 519. 1 and 2 of the Capital Companies Act, shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital may request that a supplement to this call be published by including one or more items on the Agenda provided that the new points are accompanied by a justification or, where appropriate, of a justified proposal for an agreement. The exercise of this right must be done by means of reliable notification that must be received at the registered office within five (5) days following the publication of this call.

Likewise, and in accordance with article 519.3 of the Capital Companies Act, shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital may, within the same period indicated in the previous paragraph, submit substantiated proposals for resolutions on matters already included or that should be included in the Agenda of the Meeting. The Company will ensure the dissemination of these proposed resolutions and the documentation that may be attached, among the rest of the shareholders, as they are received.

Telematic Assistance

Under the provisions of article 182 of the LSC, participation in the Meeting may be carried out by telematic attendance, through devices with internet access, by accessing the General Meeting section enabled on the website of the www.naturgy.com Company.

Shareholders who wish to attend the General Meeting electronically, or their representatives, must register through the Company's website, from one hour before the time set for the holding of the Meeting until the start time of the meeting, although they may be accredited in advance to expedite their registration on the day of the Meeting. they must prove their identity by one of the following means:

- i) The National Electronic Identity Document

- ii) An electronic certificate issued for this purpose by the Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre, or another entity with similar Certification characteristics, with respect to which there is no record of its revocation.
- iii) The "username and password" credentials that the shareholder or his/her representative will receive at his/her email address, after verification of his/her identity and his/her status as a shareholder or representative, through a special registration form available in the General Shareholders' Meeting section of the corporate website.

The shareholder shall be solely responsible for safeguarding the passwords to access and use the electronic representation, attendance and voting service.

The Company reserves the right to request from shareholders the additional means of identification that it deems necessary to verify their status as shareholders and to guarantee the authenticity of the vote, proxy or telematic attendance.

In the same act of registration and until the closing of the time of interventions, which will be indicated in due course during the Meeting, the shareholder may send the interventions or questions that he wishes to formulate. If you want it to be recorded verbatim in the minutes, you must expressly indicate this at the beginning of the document.

Requests for information or clarification from shareholders or their representatives who attend electronically will be answered orally during the General Meeting or in writing within seven days of its holding.

Shareholders who attend the General Meeting electronically may cast their vote, in accordance with the corresponding voting form, during the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting, at the time indicated by the chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Shareholders who attend the General Meeting electronically and cast their vote remotely under the terms indicated in this section will be considered as present for the purposes of the constitution of the Meeting. Consequently, the proxy or remote vote previously made by them will be understood to be revoked.

In order for a legal person shareholder to register and attend the General Meeting electronically, the proxy who is going to complete the registration process on behalf of the legal person shareholder must previously prove the power of attorney that allows him or her to act on behalf of the legal person shareholder and his or her identity by sending the Attendance Card issued in the name of the legal person shareholder by the Company or by the entity in which the shareholder is not a legal person. shareholder legal person has deposited the shares, duly completed and signed, together with a copy of the DNI, NIE or passport of the person authorized to attend the General Meeting electronically and a copy of the document that accredits the power of attorney or position that allows him or her to act on behalf of the shareholder legal person, to the email address accionista@naturgy.com, until 12:00 p.m. on the day before the General Meeting is held. Once the documentation has been received and a confirmation will be sent after verification, the proxy may register and attend the Meeting electronically as long as they comply with the access and identification requirements indicated above. Such representation shall be presumed not to have been revoked until the company is reliably informed of the contrary.

The mechanisms for telematic attendance at the General Shareholders' Meeting may be modified, suspended, cancelled or restricted when technical or security reasons require or impose it, and the shareholder may in any case exercise their rights by participating in person at the Meeting. Where applicable, the same rules will apply to telematic participation as for physical attendance at the General Meeting.

Remote Representation and Voting

Shareholders may be represented at the Meeting by another person, even if they are not shareholders, who may attend physically or electronically. The appointment of a representative, the notification of the appointment to the Company and, where appropriate, the revocation of the appointment of the representative, must be in writing. The proxy must be granted on a special basis for each Meeting, except as provided for in Article 187 of the Capital Companies Act, and must be received by the Company until 24:00 hours on the day prior to the holding of the General Meeting. Likewise, shareholders may cast remote votes, sending the proxy card or remote vote, which must be received before 24:00 hours of the previous day to the holding of the General Meeting.

The shareholder may obtain the proxy and remote voting card by requesting it from the IBERCLEAR participating entity in which they have deposited their shares, or from the Company, or they may download it from the www.naturgy.com/inicio page. The shareholder must send the duly completed proxy or remote voting card to the Company.

Both the request for representation and remote voting may be sent to the company by any of the following means: (i) by sending an email, to which the documentation may be attached in pdf format (or in one of the usual photographic formats) to the following address: accionista@naturgy.com; (ii) by delivering it to the company's offices at Avenida de América, 38 in Madrid, or at those at Avenida Diagonal 525 in Barcelona; or (iii) by sending it by post to Avenida de América, 38, Madrid, for the attention of the investor relations office.

Shareholders who are not in full enjoyment of their civil rights and legal persons who are shareholders may be represented by those who exercise their legal representation, duly accredited. The representation conferred on a person who cannot hold it in accordance with the Law shall not be valid or effective. The representation is always revocable. The physical or telematic attendance at the General Meeting of the represented party will have the value of revocation.

The proxy must be completed and signed by the shareholder and, in addition, must be accepted by the proxy. The proxy in whose favour the proxy is conferred must exercise it by personally attending the Meeting, handing in the attendance and proxy card at the shareholder registration desks, at the place and day set for the holding of the Meeting and with the advance notice set for the start of the meeting, or in the case of telematic attendance, in the manner indicated.

In the event of delegation in favour of the Board of Directors, or if doubts arise as to the addressee of the representation, it will be understood that the proxy has been granted in favour of the Chairman of the Board of Directors. The document in which the representation is recorded may contain the voting instructions for the items on the agenda. In the absence of an express indication, it will be understood that the vote is in favour of the proposals for resolutions made by the Board of Directors and extends to the points not provided for in the agenda of the call that can be dealt with, in respect of which the representative will exercise the vote in the sense that he or she considers most favourable to the interests of the represented. within the framework of the social interest.

In the event of a conflict of interest of the Chairman of the Board of Directors (or, where appropriate, of the director to whom the representation has been conferred), unless otherwise indicated, the representation shall be understood to have been made to the Secretary of the Board.

The validity of the proxy conferred will be subject to verification by the Company of the shareholder status of the represented party.

In the event that a shareholder makes several delegations, the delegation that has been made – or, if it cannot be determined, the one received – within the established period, will prevail last.

In order to prove the identity of the shareholders or whoever validly represents them, attendees may be asked to prove their identity at the entrance to the premises where the Meeting is held by presenting their National Identity Document or any other official document generally accepted for this purpose.

Electronic voting.

Shareholders who wish to vote electronically may do so through the corporate website, in the section dedicated to the General Meeting, following the instructions contained therein, requiring in all cases (i) The Electronic National Identity Document (ii) A recognized, valid and current electronic user certificate, in accordance with the provisions of Law 59/2003 on Electronic Signatures or (iii) The "username and password" credentials which the shareholder or his/her representative will receive at his/her email address, after verification of his/her identity and his/her status as a shareholder or representative, through a special registration form available in the General Shareholders' Meeting section of the corporate website.

Access to and use of the electronic voting platform by the shareholder is conditional on maintaining the Company's shareholder status at all times.

Electronic voting may be exercised from the time of the call until 12:00 p.m. on the day before the General Meeting is held.

Presence of the Bureau of the Board

The Board of Directors will require the presence of a Notary Public to draw up the minutes of the meeting.

If necessary, the technical means will be established so that the President, Notary, Secretary and other Directors can participate by video or audio conference.
