Second. Amendment of article 10 ("Proxy") and item 9 ("Remote voting before the General Meeting") of article 15 ("Quorum, discussion, and passage of resolutions") of the General Meeting Regulations.

To amend article 10 ("Proxy") and article 15 ("Quorum, discussion, and passage of resolutions"), item 9 ("Remote voting before the General Meeting"), of the General Meeting Regulations to implement proxy procedures, according to the following wording:

"Article 10 Proxy

Shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting may appoint another person to represent them at the meeting as their proxy as provided by law and in the Articles of Association. Proxy is to be issued specially for each General Meeting in writing.

No-one may accept proxies on behalf of a single shareholder that cumulatively confer voting rights on behalf of that shareholder exceeding the limits set in article 5 of the Articles of Association.

Proxies may be issued by post, email, or any other means of remote communication that afford secure electronic communications and allow the identity of the person issuing the proxy to be verified pursuant to the applicable legislation and regulations. Articles 15 and 17 bis of the Articles of Association and articles 15.9 of these Regulations will apply for voting by the above means insofar as they are in line with the nature of the proxy that has been issued.

The preceding two paragraphs will also apply to notifying the appointment of proxy to the Company and to revoking the appointment.

If the name of the person appointed as proxy is not stated, proxy will be understood to have been issued in favour of the Chair of the General Meeting.

If the shareholder represented has issued any instructions, the proxy will vote accordingly and must store those instructions for one year from the date of the corresponding General Meeting.

The proxy holder may represent more than one shareholder, with no restrictions as to the number of shareholders they may represent. When a proxy holder represents various shareholders, they may issue different votes based on the instructions received from each shareholder. The number of shares represented will be taken into account to calculate whether the General Meeting is quorate.

Pursuant to section 523 Corporate Enterprises Act, proxies must inform the shareholders concerned in detail of any conflicts of interest they may have prior to their being appointed. If a conflict of interest arises after their appointment or if the shareholder represented was not notified of its potential existence, the proxy holder must inform the shareholder immediately. In both cases, if no new specific voting instructions are received for each of the items on which the proxy holder must vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy holder must abstain from casting a vote.

Pursuant to section 526 Corporate Enterprises Act and as provided in this Regulation, where a Company's director or any other person for or on behalf of that director has made a public offer to act as proxy and has been appointed, the proxy holder may not exercise the voting rights of the shares represented on those Agenda items where the proxy holder has a conflict of interest, unless the principal has issued specific voting instructions to the proxy for each of those items.

Intermediary entities that have entitlement as shareholders according to the entries on the shareholders ledger but are acting for different ultimate beneficiaries may split their votes between yea and nay pursuant to different voting instructions they may have received. These intermediary entities may appoint each of the ultimate beneficiaries, or third parties the latter may designate, to vote as proxies without limitation as to the number of proxies issued.

Personal attendance at the General Meeting, whether physical or remote, by the shareholder represented will serve to revoke any proxies the shareholder has issued.

The shareholder represented may appoint a substitute to exercise the right to vote where there is a conflict of interest.

If the Chair of the General Meeting has been appointed as proxy, or if proxy is understood to have been issued in favour of the Chair as stipulated above, and the Chair has a conflict of interest in respect of any proposal and no specific voting instructions have been issued, the shareholder will be understood to have appointed as proxy for those proposals first the Secretary of the General Meeting and then the Deputy Secretary of the Board of Directors, jointly and severally, should either of them also have a conflict of interest. This same rule will apply if any other Board member has been appointed as proxy where that Board member has a conflict of interest in respect of any proposal and no specific voting instructions have been issued.

The proxy issued may extend to other items of business which by law may be transacted despite not having been included on the agenda set out on the notice of meeting. The rules for conflicts of interest stipulated above will also apply in these cases.

Where specific voting instructions have not been issued and the proxy is a Board member, the proxy will vote in favour of the resolutions proposed by the Board or proposals that have been accepted by the Board and as they see fit when voting on items of business not included on the Agenda or on proposals not accepted by the Board.

This same voting rule will apply where the proxy is Secretary of the Board or Deputy Secretary of the Board and no specific voting instructions have been issued.

The Board is authorised to devise suitable rules, means, and procedures for implementing shareholder representation in accordance with the state of the art having in mind the technical and legal conditions that make this possible and ensure that the identity of the shareholder exercising the right of representation can be properly verified in compliance with the legislation and regulations issued for that purpose at any time.

The rules for implementation put in place by the Board under this section and the means, procedures, and forms for appointing proxy are to be posted on the Company's website."

"Article 15. Quorum, discussion, and passage of resolutions

15.9 Remote voting before the General Meeting

Shareholders entitled to attend and to vote may issue their votes on proposals included on the Agenda by post, email, or any other means of remote communication that afford secure electronic communications and allow the identity of the shareholder casting the ballot to be verified pursuant to the applicable legislation and regulations, to the Articles of Association, and to any supplementary rules or implementing procedures approved by the Board of Directors.

The means whereby shareholders may cast their votes remotely on proposed resolutions for items of business not included on the Agenda on the notice of meeting may include appointment of proxy, in which case appointment of proxy will be subject to the rules for that purpose set forth in article 10 of these Regulations.

Ballots submitted by post will be cast by sending the Company a written notice recording the votes together with the admission card issued by the entity or entities responsible for keeping the books, or, where applicable, by the Company.

Electronic ballots will be cast over a recognised electronic signature or other form of assurance that the Board considers appropriate to ensure their authenticity and the identity of the shareholder exercising the right to vote.

Ballots cast electronically must be received by the Company before midnight (24:00 hours) of the day immediately preceding the day scheduled for the General Meeting at the first call to meeting. Ballots sent in later will be considered as not cast.

The Board is authorised to devise suitable rules, means, and procedures for implementing voting in accordance with the state of the art having in mind the technical and legal conditions that make this possible and ensure that the identity of the party exercising the right to vote can be properly verified in compliance with the legislation and regulations issued for that purpose at any time.

In particular, the Board may make provision for using other guarantees as alternatives to an electronic signature when voting electronically and may shorten the term for the Company to receive the votes cast in advance by post, electronically, or by any other means of remote communication as provided in the preceding paragraphs.

The Board will in any case take the necessary measures to avoid duplication and ensure that the party casting the ballot is duly authorised to do so under article 15 of the Articles of Association.

The rules for implementation put in place by the Board under this article and the means, procedures, and forms for appointing proxy and voting remotely are to be posted on the Company's website.

Shareholders entitled to attend and vote who cast their votes remotely as envisaged under this article are to be counted as present for purposes of verifying that the General Meeting is quorate.

Personal attendance at the General Meeting, whether physical or remote, by the shareholder or the shareholder's proxy will serve to revoke any vote made by post, electronically, or by any other means of remote communication."

Third. Amendment of item 8 ("Voting") of article 15 ("Quorum, discussion, and passage of resolutions") of the General Meeting Regulations.

To amend article 15 ("Quorum, discussion, and passage of resolutions"), item 8 ("Voting"), of the General Meeting Regulations to implement proxy procedures, according to the following wording.

"Article 15. Quorum, discussion, and passage of resolutions

15.8 Voting

In accordance with the Articles of Association, each share is entitled to one vote subject to the limitations stated on the shares under section 30 Spanish Electricity Sector Act [Ley del Sector Eléctrico] and Additional Provision Twenty-three of that Act.

The Chair will put those matters that are substantially independent to a separate vote to enable shareholders to exercise their voting preferences separately. The following in particular will be voted on separately:

- i. Appointment, ratification, re-appointment, or removal of each Board member;*
- ii. When the Articles of Association are amended, each article or self-contained group of articles;*
- iii. Those matters so stipulated in the Articles of Association.*

The Chair will decide on the most appropriate method of voting in each case, to be announced publicly at the General Meeting sufficiently in advance of voting.

However, the following inferential methods may be employed to expedite voting:

- i. When voting on Board proposals on the matters included on the Agenda, all the shares present or represented may be counted as votes in favour except for votes against, blank votes, and abstentions expressly submitted to the Secretary of the General Meeting or, if applicable, to the notary present at the meeting in the manner decided by the Chair.*
- ii. When voting on Board proposals on items of business not included on the Agenda, or on alternative proposals to those put forward by the Board, all the shares present or represented may be counted as votes against except for votes in favour, blank votes, and abstentions expressly submitted to the Secretary of the General Meeting or, where applicable, to the notary present at the meeting in the manner decided by the Chair.*

In the two preceding cases, votes may be submitted to the Secretary or, where applicable, to the notary individually for each Agenda item or combined for some or all of the items together. The Secretary will, where applicable, give the Chair the list drawn up by the scrutineers and the notary, where present, with the results of the ballot for each proposal. The list of votes must include all ballots, stating the voter's name, voting status (shareholder or proxy), and whether the vote is for, against, or an abstention. Where applicable the notary will include the results in the minutes in the same form."
