The CNMC and the CNMV hold the first joint meeting of their Boards in Barcelona

The Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) and the Spanish National Commission on Markets and Competition (CNMC) have today held, in Barcelona, the first joint meeting of their Boards on the occasion of the inauguration of the new CNMV office in the building where the CNMC already has its headquarters, in district 22@. The meeting was conducted by the Chairs of the two institutions, Rodrigo Buenaventura and Cani Fernández, respectively.

Issues of common interest to both institutions and strategies to enhance their individual coordination actions within their respective remits were addressed at the meeting.

Some of the issues discussed were related to the cooperation and coordination between the two institutions in training projects, the sharing of supervisory technologies and other general issues relating to the overlapping of their respective activities with regard to listed companies or mergers.
