Personal Data Protection

Personal data hereunder shown, those that shareholders and, where applicable, their appointed proxy provide to the Company in the exercise of their rights to attend, to proxy appointment and to vote at the Annual General Meeting, or any data (including identification, economic, financial and corporate data) provided by the banks or brokerage firms or companies with whom shareholders have their shares deposited, through the entity legally authorised to maintain the book-entry register, Iberclear, as well as such data which are gathered upon taking photos and recording the Annual General Meeting (i.e., image and voice), shall be processed with the Company being the controller thereof, in order to manage and control both the shareholding relationship and the calling, holding, covering and broadcasting of the Annual General Meeting, and comply with its statutory obligations. The legal basis for the processing for the purposes of managing and monitoring the shareholding relationship, and the calling and holding of the Meeting, is the shareholder relationship and compliance with legal obligations. Likewise, the legal basis for the processing of the data consisting of image and/or voice is both the existence of a legitimate interest of the Company in covering the Annual General Meeting, as well as recording and broadcasting it which is acknowledged in the regulations and principles on transparency applicable to the Company.

Data will be disclosed to the Notary who attends the meeting to take the minutes. They may also be provided to third parties in the exercise of the statutory right to information. Likewise, they may be accessed by the public to the extent that they are included in the documentation available on the corporate website (www.inditex.com) or are disclosed during the AGM which may be recorded and broadcasted through such webpage and by accredited media.

Personal data shall be stored while the shareholding relationship exists and for a further period of six (6) years, exclusively for the purposes of addressing any legal or contractual action, unless the period of limitation of any legal or contractual action is, as an exception, higher.

Data subjects may contact and submit requests for the exercise of their rights to access, rectification, erasure or objection, restriction of processing and portability, as well as any other statutory rights on data protection, pursuant to the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (General Data Protection Regulation), by sending a written notice to the Data Protection Officer of the Inditex Group, either to: (i) the registered office of the Company: Avenida de la Diputación, Edificio Inditex, Arteixo, A Coruña (Spain); or (ii) to the following e-mail address dataprotection@inditex.com. Data subjects may lodge a complaint or request related to personal data protection to the Agencia Española de Protección de Datos [Spanish Data Protection Agency] on its corporate website (www.aepd.es) or at the following address: Calle Jorge Juan. 6, 28001 – Madrid.

Further details on the processing of personal data are provided in the Privacy Policy, available on the corporate website (www.inditex.com).

Where personal data of natural persons other than the data subject are provided in the attendance or proxy and absentee voting card, and where a third party attends the Annual General Meeting, shareholders are bound to inform such third party of the issues referred to in the foregoing paragraphs on personal data processing, and meet any other applicable requirements for the appropriate transfer of personal data to the Company, without the Company having to take any further measure vis-à-vis the data subjects. The legal bases for the processing of such third parties' data are the same as the ones for shareholders, described above. For further details on the processing of their personal data, third parties can consult the Privacy Policy available on the corporate website (www.inditex.com).

Arteixo, A Coruña (Spain), 2 June 2026.
