PRIVILEGED INFORMATION

Acquisition of Idemia Public Security (IPS) and financing of the transaction

Following the communication dated 29 April 2026 (CNMV registration number 3,180), informing of the intention to acquire Idemia Public Security (IPS), a leading provider of biometrics and identity services based in France, Amadeus has today formalised the acquisition of IPS and its group of companies, for €1,200 million, plus a potential earn-out of up to €150 million. Closing is subject to customary regulatory approvals and is expected mid-2027.

Amadeus has also entered into a syndicated bridge loan of €1.2 billion in a single currency with a group of reference banks, with a duration of one year, plus two six-month extensions to maturity, at the Company's option.

The loan amount will be used to finance the aforementioned acquisition.
